Narrative

Incident Description My car was parked in the apartment's parking lot, and the passenger side window was smashed in an attempted theft. I parked my car back in the apartment's parking lot around 8 PM on September 23, 2020. The next day at around 3:30 PM, I discovered that the car window had been smashed and the items inside the car had been rummaged through. The apartment requires me to provide a report in order to review the surveillance footage.
